General University Policy Regarding Academic Appointees: APM - 025 - Conflict of Commitment and Outside Activities of Faculty Members and Designated Other Academic Appointees

025-0 Policy

The University of California policy on conflict of commitment and outside activities of faculty members and Designated Other Academic Appointees (referred to hereafter as “appointees”) provides guidance for the identification and management of outside professional activities in order to avoid conflicts of commitment, while assuring that faculty and other appointees (see APM - 025-14-a for a list of faculty and other academic titles subject to this policy) may engage in a wide array of outside activities without unnecessary limitations. This policy is specific to general campus faculty and other appointees. Faculty participating in the Health Sciences Compensation Plan are subject to APM - 671, Conflict of Commitment and Outside Activities of Health Sciences Compensation Plan Participants and are not subject to APM - 025. Faculty members and other appointees in Health Sciences Schools who are not participants in the Health Sciences Compensation Plan are subject to APM - 025.

025-2 Purpose

a. General

(1) Faculty

Faculty members who are employed by the University of California owe their primary professional allegiance to the University and accept as their own the University’s responsibilities to advance and communicate knowledge. Teaching, research or other creative activities, and the cultivation of scholarly or creative competence, are their primary activities and should receive the largest commitment of time and energy; the same expectation exists for part-time faculty to the extent of their faculty appointment. In service of the University’s goals to advance and communicate knowledge through interaction with the public, faculty have an obligation to provide, within limits, University-related public service by using their expertise to contribute to the University and/or the professions, business, the community or the public. Such activities also help faculty identify and address community needs and afford practical experience and knowledge valuable to teaching and research or creative activity. This policy seeks to balance these competing University obligations in the context of a faculty member’s professional discretion in allocating time and effort across multiple activities. This policy also seeks to clarify reporting and prior approval requirements related to outside professional activities involving foreign entities that may pose foreign influence risks.
This policy acknowledges the value of outside professional activities while recognizing the likelihood that some outside activities may cause real or apparent conflicts of commitment. Outside professional activities that interfere with a faculty member’s professional obligations to the University represent a conflict of commitment. The Department Chair, in consultation with the faculty member and the Dean, shall resolve all questions related to whether an individual activity constitutes an outside non-professional activity or is an activity within the course and scope of employment.

(2) Designated Other Academic Appointees

Designated Other Academic Appointees who are employed by the University of California owe their primary professional allegiance to the University. Research or other defined duties appropriate to their series should receive their time and energy. This policy seeks to clarify reporting and prior approval requirements related to outside professional activities involving foreign entities that may pose foreign influence risks.

This policy manages conflict of commitment, defines which outside professional activities must be disclosed to the University, approved prior to engagement, and/or reported annually. This policy limits the amount of time a faculty member or other appointee may devote to outside professional activities and describes the requirements for involving a student in outside professional activities.

b. Related University Policy

In addition to this policy on conflict of commitment and outside activities, faculty and other appointees must comply with all University policies involving University intellectual property (this includes, among other policies APM - 740-18-c-3), conflict of interest, and restrictions on compensation. See Appendix A for a list of other relevant University policies.

025-4 Definitions

a. Outside Professional Activities

Outside Professional Activities, compensated or uncompensated and regardless of financial interest, are defined as those activities that are within a faculty member’s or other appointee’s area of professional, academic expertise and that advance or communicate that expertise through interaction with industry, the community, or the public. Outside additional teaching as described in APM - 025-10-a- (2)-(a) is included in this definition. Outside professional activities are distinct from non-professional activities, i.e., activities that are part of the faculty member’s or other appointee’s private life and are not expressly governed by University regulations or by the guidelines on outside professional activities. Outside professional activities must not interfere with a faculty member’s or other appointee’s obligations to the University.

b. Conflict of Commitment

A conflict of commitment occurs when a faculty member’s or other appointee’s outside activities interfere with the faculty member’s or other appointee’s professional obligations to the University of California.

c. Conflict of Interest

This policy does not cover conflict of interest; it covers only conflict of commitment. See Appendix A for relevant University policies concerning conflict of interest.

d. Outside Consulting

Outside consulting is one type of outside professional activity. It is defined as professional advice or services related to the faculty member’s or other appointee’s field or discipline, whether compensated or uncompensated, that furthers the interests of an entity outside of the University of California.

e. A Day

For purposes of this policy, a day is defined using common sense and customary practice. This definition may vary by campus and/or discipline.

f. Compensation

Compensation for outside professional activities includes all types of remuneration (including stock and stock options) that have immediate or potential financial value, excluding customary honoraria,\(^1\) reimbursement for reasonable travel expenses, and per diem expenses.\(^2\)

\(^1\) See APM - 666
\(^2\) See Business and Finance Bulletin G-28
025-6 Responsibility

  a. Chancellor

  The Chancellor is responsible for overseeing compliance with this policy, which includes:

  (1) Communicating policy requirements;

  (2) Developing implementing procedures and administrative mechanisms for disclosure, prior approval of all Category I activities (including I.A and I.B) and Category II.B activities (see APM - 025-10 for descriptions of Categories I, II, and III activities and APM - 025-10-b-(1) and for prior approval requirements, and APM - 025-10-b-(2) for annual reporting requirements);

  (3) Developing procedures to identify and resolve, if possible, conflicts between a faculty member’s or other appointee’s commitment to the University and a faculty member’s or other appointee’s outside professional activities; and

  (4) Establishing a deadline for submission of annual reports based on a fiscal-year calendar.

  b. Faculty

  It is the responsibility of the individual faculty member to disclose, to the best of their ability, all known relevant information regarding the nature of their outside professional activities and the business/agency/organization/group/individual for whom the services are performed.

  Faculty are responsible for complying with this policy, including:

  (1) Obtaining prior written approval for engagement in all Category I (including I.A and I.B) and Category II.B activities (see APM - 025-10 for descriptions of Categories I, II, and III activities and APM - 025-10-b-(1) for prior approval requirements);

  (2) Submitting annual reports of all Category I (including I.A and I.B) and Category II (including II.A and II.B) activities (or the lack thereof) to the Department Chair (see APM - 025-10-b-(2) for annual reporting requirements);

  (3) Attesting to adherence with the requirements of this policy in the annual report;
c. Designated Other Academic Appointees

It is the responsibility of the individual appointee to disclose to the best of their ability all known relevant information regarding the nature of their outside professional activities and the business/agency/organization/group/individual for whom the services are performed. Appointees subject to this policy are responsible for complying with this policy, including:

(1) Obtaining prior written approval for engagement in Category I.B and Category II.B activities (see APM - 025-10 for descriptions of Categories I and II activities and APM - 025-10-b-(1) for prior approval requirements);

(2) Submitting annual reports of Category I.B and Category II.B activities (or the lack thereof) to the Department Chair or equivalent (see APM - 025-10-b-(2) for annual reporting requirements);

(3) Attesting to adherence with the requirements of this policy in the annual report;

(4) Disclosing any current or prospective outside professional activity to the Department Chair or equivalent if in doubt as to whether there is a conflict of commitment; and,

(5) Obtaining prior approval from the Department Chair or equivalent before involving a student in an outside professional activity (see APM - 025-8-d).

025-8 General Principles

a. Obligations to the University

(1) Faculty

Outside professional activities must be undertaken in a manner consistent with the faculty member’s professional obligations to the University. Outside activities must not conflict with the faculty member’s obligations to students, colleagues, or to the University as a whole. In order to fulfill those obligations, faculty members must maintain a significant presence on campus, meet classes, keep office hours, hold examinations as scheduled, be accessible to students and staff, be available to interact with University colleagues, and share service responsibilities throughout every quarter or semester of active service.

(2) Designated Other Academic Appointees

Outside professional activities must be undertaken in a manner consistent with the appointee’s professional obligations to the University. Outside activities must not conflict with the appointee’s obligations to colleagues, student employees, student mentees, or to the University as a whole. In order to fulfill those obligations, appointees must maintain a significant presence on campus; be accessible to student employees, student mentees, and staff; be available to interact with University colleagues, and; if appropriate to their series, share service responsibilities throughout every quarter or semester of active service.

b. Time Limits

(1) Faculty

(a) Faculty may engage in Category I (including I.A and I.B) and II (including II.A and II.B) outside professional activities for up to 39 days per year for academic-year faculty and 48 days per year for fiscal-year faculty. It is expected that the use of days will be allocated evenly across service periods.

(b) For faculty appointed at less than 100 percent time, the number of days allowed for outside professional activities during the faculty member’s normal University working hours shall be prorated based on the percentage of appointment, provided that the faculty member had otherwise fulfilled obligations to the University. In addition, the faculty member could engage in additional outside professional activities during the time not committed to University service.

(c) For faculty, even distribution of days is encouraged; however, no more than 39 days in one academic year or 48 days in one fiscal year are permitted.

(d) Days not used in one year may not be carried forward to the next year.

(2) Designated Other Academic Appointees
The participation of full-time and part-time appointees in outside professional service activities is not subject to time limits.

c. Summer Months

(1) Faculty

There are no restrictions on the number of days of Category I and II activity for academic-year faculty during the summer months unless an academic-year faculty member receives additional University compensation for the summer. If an academic-year faculty member receives additional University summer compensation, the time limit on compensated and uncompensated outside professional activities is the equivalent of one day per week during the period in which University summer compensation is received. For faculty receiving University summer compensation at less than 100 percent time, hours shall be prorated, and faculty may engage in additional OPA during time not committed to University service. (See APM - 600, Appendix 1). The 39-day maximum during the academic year is distinct and separate from the equivalent of one day per week during the period in which University summer compensation is received. The 39 days may not be averaged into the summer service period.

(2) Designated Other Academic Appointees

There are no restrictions on the number of days of Category I and II activity for academic-year appointees during the summer months.

d. Students

(1) Faculty

Involvement of students in the outside professional activities of a faculty member may, under certain conditions, offer the student potential educational benefits. However, the relationship between faculty member and student must be protected from influences or activities that may interfere with learning consistent with the goals and ideals of the University (The Faculty Code of Conduct, APM - 015). A faculty member involving a student in outside activities has the responsibility to ensure that the student’s participation does not interfere with the student’s academic obligations.

If the faculty member has, or expects to have, academic responsibility (instructional, evaluative, or supervisory) for the student, the faculty member must obtain prior written approval from the Department Chair before involving a student in an outside professional activity regardless of whether the faculty member is compensated for or has a financial interest in the activity. Involvement of students means any substantive activity in which the student participates, whether the student is compensated or uncompensated. The involvement of a student in the outside professional activity of a faculty member must not affect, positively or negatively, the faculty member’s evaluation of the student’s performance in any other context.

(2) Designated Other Academic Appointees

Involvement of students in the outside professional activities of an appointee may, under certain conditions, offer the student potential career or educational benefits. However, the relationship between the appointee and student must be protected from influences or activities that may interfere with student learning and professional development consistent with the goals and ideals of the University. An appointee involving a student in outside activities has the responsibility to ensure that the student’s participation does not interfere with the student’s academic obligations. If the appointee has, or expects to have responsibility (supervisory or evaluative) for the student, the appointee must obtain prior written approval from the Department Chair or equivalent before involving a student in an outside professional activity regardless of whether the appointee is compensated for or has a financial interest in the activity. Involvement of students means any substantive activity in which the student participates, whether the student is compensated or uncompensated. The involvement of a student in the outside professional activity of an appointee must not affect, positively or negatively, the appointee’s evaluation of the student’s performance as a student or employee.

e. Use of University Resources

The use of University resources in connection with outside professional activities is subject to limitations. The Faculty Code of Conduct (APM - 015, Part II, C) defines the unauthorized use of University resources or facilities on a significant scale for personal, commercial, political or religious purposes as a type of unacceptable conduct. The Standards of Ethical Conduct, as adopted by The Regents, state that University resources may only be used for activities that are undertaken on behalf of the University. The University’s resources may not be used for private gain or for personal purposes except in limited circumstances that are permitted by existing policy.

f. Liability Coverage

The University’s liability and workers compensation coverage does not extend to activity that is outside the course and scope of University employment. Some outside professional activities, particularly certain consulting and expert witness testimony, would generally be considered outside the course and scope of University employment, depending on the facts and circumstances of any given case. Questions about University liability coverage in connection with a specified activity or exposure should be discussed with the Office of Risk Services at the Office of the President.

025-10 Guidelines

Professional activities are separated into three categories in the management of this policy. For faculty, Categories I and II include activities that must be reported and -- in the case of Categories I.A, I.B, and II.B -- must receive prior approval before the faculty member engages in the activity. For other appointees, Category I.B and Category II.B activities must be reported and receive prior approval before engagement in the activity. Category III activities are those that are within the course and scope of employment at the University and need not be approved or reported, either by faculty or other appointees. When an activity falls into more than one category, it should be assigned to the category that requires more stringent reporting and prior approval, as applicable.

a. Types of Outside Professional Activity

Outside professional activities are categorized based on the extent to which they are likely to constitute conflict of commitment:

(1) Category I

Category I activities are outside professional activities that are most likely to create a conflict of commitment because: 1) they are activities related to the training and expertise that is the individual’s qualification for University appointment, but performed for a third party, and/or 2) they require significant professional commitment.

Category I activities include two subsets of activities: Category I.A activities involve U.S.-owned entities or occur within the U.S.; Category I.B activities involve foreign-owned entities or occur outside the U.S. Faculty must receive prior approval and submit annual reports for engagement in both Category I.A and I.B activities. Other appointees must receive prior approval and submit reports for engagement in only Category I.B activities.

For faculty members, Category I.A and I.B activities require prior approval by the Chancellor count toward the faculty member’s maximum 39/48 days of outside professional activities (see APM - 025-8-b for definition of time limits), and require disclosure in annual reporting. For other appointees, Category I.B activities require prior approval by the Chancellor and disclosure in annual reporting. Approvals for both faculty and other appointees are generally for one fiscal year but may be granted for a longer term, not to exceed five years.

Category I.A

Examples of Category I.A activities, which apply only to faculty and involve U.S.-owned entities or occur within the U.S. and include, but are not limited to:

(a) Teaching, research, or administration of a grant at an educational institution, trust, organization, government agency, foundation, or other entity outside of the University;

(b) Employment outside of the University;

(c) Assuming a founding or a co-founding role of a company;

(d) Assuming an executive or managerial position outside of the University.4

Category I.B

Examples of Category I.B activities, which apply to both faculty and other appointees and involve foreign-owned entities or occur outside the U.S. and include, but are not limited to:

(a) Teaching, research, or administration of a grant at an educational institution, trust, organization, government agency, foundation, or other entity outside of the University;

(b) Employment outside of the University;

3 Grants submitted on behalf of a professional society are exempt from this restriction, i.e., are not considered Category I activities.

4 This does not include positions with professional societies.

5 Grants submitted on behalf of a professional society are exempt from this restriction, i.e., are not considered Category I activities.
c) Assuming a founding or a co-founding role of a company;

d) Assuming an executive or managerial position outside of the University.\(^6\)

(2) Category II

Category II activities are typically shorter-term outside professional activities that are outside the course and scope of University employment. Category II activities have a lesser potential for a conflict of commitment than do Category I activities. Category II activities include two subsets of activities: Category II.A activities involve U.S.-owned entities or occur within the U.S.; Category II.B activities involve foreign-owned entities or occur outside the U.S.

For faculty, Category II.A activities require disclosure in annual reporting under this policy, but do not require prior approval. For both faculty and other appointees, Category II.B activities require prior approval, as well as disclosure in annual reporting. Category II.A and II.B activities count toward the faculty member’s maximum 39/48 days of outside professional activities (see APM - 025-8-b for definition of time limits).

Category II.A

Examples of Category II.A activities, which apply only to faculty, involve U.S.-owned entities or occur within the U.S. and include, but are not limited to:

(a) Additional University-compensated teaching, including teaching for UNEX courses and programs (see APM - 662, Additional Compensation: Additional Teaching), other continuing education programs run by the University, and self-supporting UC degree programs;\(^7\)

(b) Consulting or testifying as an expert or professional witness;

(c) Providing outside consulting services or referrals or engaging in professional practice as an individual or through a single-member professional corporation or sole proprietorship;

\(^6\) This includes positions with professional societies.

\(^7\) These are teaching activities outside of the assigned teaching load. If the department assigns the teaching activity, it is not considered an outside activity.
(d) Serving on a board of directors outside of the University;

(e) Providing or presenting a workshop for industry;

(f) Providing outside consulting or compensated professional activities performed for entities such as the Los Alamos and Lawrence Livermore National Laboratories.8

Category II.B

Examples of Category II.B activities, which apply to both faculty and other appointees, involve foreign-owned entities or occur outside the U.S. and include, but are not limited to:

(a) Consulting or testifying as an expert or professional witness;

(b) Providing outside consulting services or referrals or engaging in professional practice as an individual or through a single-member professional corporation or sole proprietorship;

(c) Serving on a board of directors outside of the University;

(d) Providing or presenting a workshop for industry;

(e) Providing outside consulting or compensated professional activities performed for foreign-owned entities or that occur outside the U.S.

(3) Category III

Category III activities, which apply only to faculty, are within the course and scope of University employment. As such, they are unlikely to raise conflict of commitment issues.

8 Because of the nature of their relationship to the University, consulting specifically for the Board of Governors Science and Technology Committee of Los Alamos National Security, LLC and Lawrence Livermore National Security, LLC does not require disclosure in annual reporting or prior approval and does not count toward the faculty member’s maximum of 39/48 days of outside professional activities.
Category III activities do not require disclosure in annual reporting or prior approval under this policy and do not count toward the faculty member’s maximum of 39/48 days of outside professional activities. Nevertheless, these activities must not interfere with a faculty member’s obligations to the University (see APM - 025-8-a).

Examples of Category III activities include, but are not limited to:

(a) Serving on government or professional panels or committees or as an officer or board member of a professional or scholarly society;

(b) Reviewing manuscripts; acting in an editorial capacity;

(c) Attending and presenting talks at university/academic colloquia and conferences;

(d) Developing scholarly or creative works;

(e) Accepting honoraria for scholarly, intellectual, educational, outreach work within the course and scope of employment; and,

(f) Receiving prizes, defined as gifts in recognition of personal achievements and not for services rendered.

b. Disclosure Requirements

Faculty and other appointees are responsible for disclosing situations that may raise conflict of commitment issues in the following manner:

(1) Prior Approval Requirements

(a) Reporting requirements for faculty

For faculty, all Category I.A, I.B, and II.B activities and requests to exceed the maximum number of days permitted require prior written approval from the Chancellor in advance of performing the activity.

(b) Reporting requirements for Designated Other Academic Appointees

For other appointees, all Category I.B and II.B activities require written approval from the Chancellor in advance of performing the activity.
(2) Reporting Requirements

(a) Reporting requirements for faculty

All faculty must file an annual report of outside professional activities each fiscal year, even if the faculty member did not engage in outside professional activities during the year. Faculty must report annually all Category I (including I.A and I.B) and Category II (including II.A and II.B) outside professional activities conducted during the prior 12 months, including activities that were conducted during normal service periods, during periods of leave with and without pay, and during summer months when receiving University compensation. The requirement for annual reporting begins on the date of hire.

(b) Reporting requirements for Designated Other Academic Appointees

All appointees subject to APM - 025 must file an annual report of engagement in Category I.B and Category II.B outside professional activities each fiscal year, even if the appointee did not engage in outside professional activities in these categories during the year. Appointees must report annually all Category I.B and Category II.B outside professional activities conducted during the prior 12 months, including activities that were conducted during normal service periods, during periods of leave with and without pay, and during summer months when receiving University compensation. The requirement for annual reporting begins on the date of hire.
